

Joyful, O ye nations sing

Translated and paraphrased by William Dodd (1729-77)

Hymn 7, by Phocion Henley (1728-64)
Edited by Robert Barr and Francis Roads

Psalm 100 (Jubilate Deo)

Lively [$\text{♩} = 120$]

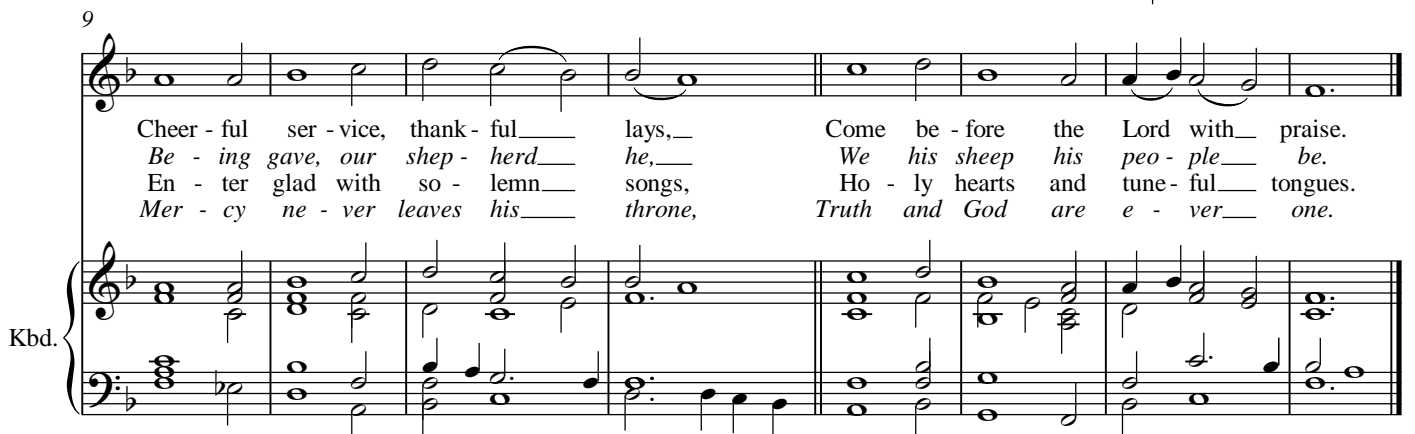

Voices

1. Joy - ful, O ye na - tions, sing, — Come, and songs of gladness bring: —
2. He is God, the King of kings, Who, to all cre - a - ted things,
3. Come, then to his courts re - pair; — Come, and glad - ly en - ter there, —
4. Well may we his praise pro - claim, Good - ness is his na - ture's name: —

Keyboard

9

Cheer - ful ser - vice, thank - ful — lays, — Come be - fore the Lord with — praise.
Be - ing gave, our shep - herd — he, — We his sheep his peo - ple — be.
En - ter glad with so - lemn — songs, Ho - ly hearts and tune - ful — tongues.
Mer - cy ne - ver leaves his — throne, Truth and God are e - ver — one.

Kbd.