2. Arise, no more in slumber lay,
But come and hail the glorious morn:
Your gifts bring quick without delay,
For lo! the great Messiah's born.

3. Born of a maid, a virgin pure,
In David's town the infant lay.
He comes the sick in soul to cure,
And point man to the gospel-way.

4. Come, tuneful voices loudly raise!
In songs of praise his name adore!
For his great love sound forth his praise,
In hymns of joy for everyone.

5. Now, let's give glory to the Lord,
Since peace and love to us are given;
Let strains be sung with sweet accord,
Until they reach the highest heaven!

The symphony from bar 28 appears to have been somewhat adapted for keyboard use by Pickard-Cambridge. Some of the the part writing here is conjectural.

Circled numbers correspond with lines of text.
