Joseph Key was an excise officer from Nuneaton in Warwickshire, and an amateur musician. This is a late and florid example of the chanting tune from Eight anthems, on various occasions (Nuneaton, 1773).

Bars 7, 15, 23 and 31: bracketed B♭s in the instrumental bass editorial suggestion; bars 40 and 42 (3rd and 5th of rehearsal letter J): the bracketed bass notes are editorial; the original gives only the instrumental bass here.
