2. O to my longing eyes once more
That view of glorious power restore,
Which thy majestic house displays!
Because to me thy wondrous love
: Than life itself does dearer prove,
My lips shall always speak thy praise. :|

3. My life, while I that life enjoy,
In blessing God I will employ,
With lifted hands adore his name;
My soul's content shall be as great
: As theirs who choicest dainties eat,
While I with joy his praise proclaim. :|

4. To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God who all the sacred host,
Of saints and angels do adore,
All glory be; as heretofore,
It was, is now, and so shall be,
To ages of eternity.

This version of Zalmonah appears in both Colby and Lancaster MSS, IOM. The name there Alma New is perhaps a mishearing of Fawcett's name. His version would have been soprano led.
