

No kingly robes nor golden treasure

1

Anon.

Anon.,

Edited by Francis Roads

[♩=120]

Soprano [Air]

1. No king - ly robes nor gol - den trea - sure, Deck'd the birth - day of God's Son;
 2. Yet as Ma - ry sat in so - lace By our Sa - viour's first be - gin - ning,
 3. Heav'n's per - ceiv - ing small be - frien - ding Of this pro - mised Prince of might,
 4. Then with An - gel love in - spi - red, Three wiseprin - ces from the East,
 5. Now to him that hath re - deem'd us, By his pre - cious death and pas - sion;

Alto

Tenor

1. No king - ly robes nor gol - den trea - sure, Deck'd the birth - day of God's Son;
 2. Yet as Ma - ry sat in so - lace By our Sa - viour's first be - gin - ning,
 3. Heav'n's per - ceiv - ing small be - frien - ding Of this pro - mised Prince of might,
 4. Then with An - gel love in - spi - red, Three wiseprin - ces from the East,
 5. Now to him that hath re - deem'd us, By his pre - cious death and pas - sion;

Bass

Keyboard

4

S

No pom - pous train at all took plea - sure To this King of kings to run;
Hosts of An - gels from God's Pa - lace, Soun - ding sweet from hea - ven's sing - ing.
 From the chry - stal skies des - cen - ding, Bla - zing glo - rious beams of light,
To Beth - le - hem as they de - si - red, Came where - as our Lord did rest:
 And us sin - ners so e - steemed us, To buy dear ly this sal - va - tion.

A

T

No pom - pous train at all took plea - sure To this King of kings to run;
Hosts of An - gels from God's Pa - lace, Soun - ding sweet from hea - ven's sing - ing.
 From the chry - stal skies des - cen - ding, Bla - zing glo - rious beams of light,
To Beth - le - hem as they de - si - red, Came where - as our Lord did rest:
 And us sin - ners so e - steemed us, To buy dear ly this sal - va - tion.

B

Kbd.

For editorial notes, see the vocal copy.

No kingly robes nor golden treasure

8

S

No man - tle brave could Je - sus have Up - on his cra - dle for_ to_ lie;
Yea heav'n and earth at Je - sus' birth, With sweet me - lo - dious tunes a - bound;
 A glo - rious star did shine so far, That all the earth might see_ the_ same;
And there they laid be - fore the maid, Un - to her Son, her God, her King,
 Yield las - ting fame, that still the name Of Je - sus may be ho - noured here;

A

T

8

No man - tle brave could Je - sus have Up - on his cra - dle for_ to_ lie;
Yea heav'n and earth at Je - sus' birth, With sweet me - lo - dioustunes a - bound;
 A glo - rious star did shine so far, That all the earth might see the same;
And there they laid be - fore the maid, Un - to her Son, her God, her King,
 Yield las - ting fame, that still the name Of Je - sus may be ho - noured here;

B

Kbd.

12

S

No mu - sic charms in nur - se's arms To_ sing the_ babe a lul - la - by.
And ev' - ry thing in Je - wry's King, Up - on the_ earth gave cheer - ful sound.
 And na - tions strange their faith did change, To_ yield Him ho - nour, laud, and fame.
Their off' - rings sweet, as was most meet, Un - to so_ great a pow'r to bring.
 And let us say that Christ - mas Day, Is_ still the_ best day in the year.

A

T

8

No mu - sic charms in nur - se's arms To_ sing the_ babe a lul - la - by.
And ev' - ry thing in Je - wry's King, Up - on the_ earth gave cheer - ful sound.
 And na - tions strange their faith did change, To_ yield Him ho - nour, laud, and fame.
Their off' - rings sweet, as was most meet, Un - to so_ great a pow'r to bring.
 And let us say that Christ - mas Day, Is_ still the_ best day in the year.

B

Kbd.

Symphony