2. On kings, the greatest sons of men,
Let none for aid rely;
They cannot save in dang'rous times,
Nor timely help apply.

3. Deprived of breath, to dust they turn,
And there neglected lie,
And all their thoughts and vain designs
Together with them die.

4. Then happy he, who Jacob's God
For his protector takes;
Who still with well placed hope the Lord
His constant refuge makes.
