

Blessed be our everlasting Lord

God moves in a mysterious way

Charles Wesley (1707-88)

London New, from Playford's Psalms 1671

[♩]=120

Soprano

1. Blessed be our e - ver - las - ting Lord, Our Fa - ther, God, and King!
 2. By thee the vic - to - ry is giv'n; The ma - je - sty di - vine,
 3. The king - dom, Lord, is thine a - lone, Who dost thy right main - tain,
 4. Rich - es, as seem - eth good to thee, Thou dost, and ho - nour, give;

Alto

Tenor [Air]

1. Blessed be our e - ver - las - ting Lord, Our Fa - ther, God, and King!
 2. By thee the vic - to - ry is giv'n; The ma - je - sty di - vine,
 3. The king - dom, Lord, is thine a - lone, Who dost thy right main - tain,
 4. Rich - es, as seem - eth good to thee, Thou dost, and ho - nour, give;

Bass

10

S

Thy sov - 'reign good - ness we re - cord, Thy glo - rious pow'r we sing.
And strength, and might, and earth, and heav'n, And all there in, are thine.
 And, high on thine e - ter - nal throne, O'er men and an - gels regn.
And kings their pow'r and dig - ni - ty Out of thy hand re - ceive.

A

T

Thy sov - 'reign good - ness we re - cord, Thy glo - rious pow'r we sing.
And strength, and might, and earth, and heav'n, And all there in, are thine.
 And, high on thine e - ter - nal throne, O'er men and an - gels regn.
And kings their pow'r and dig - ni - ty Out of thy hand re - ceive.

B

5. Thou hast on us the grace bestowed
 Thy greatness to proclaim;
 And therefore now we thank our God,
 And praise thy glorious name.

6. Thy glorious name and nature's powers
 Thou dost to us make known;
 And all the Deity is ours,
 Through thy incarnate Son.