

Have you not heard our Saviour's love?

1

Verse 1: Anon.,
Verses 2-4: Alexander Pope (1688-1744)

Anon.,
Edited by Francis Roads

[♩=120]

Soprano

1. Have you not heard, not heard our Sa - viour's love, That
 2. Hark a glad voice the lone - ly de - sert cheers; Pre -
 3. 'Tis he th'ob - struc - ted paths of sound shall clear And
 4. The seas shall waste, the skies in smoke de - cay, Rocks
 5. All glo - ry be to God en - throned on high, Who

Alto

Tenor
[Air]

8

1. Have you not heard, not heard our Sa - viour's love, That
 2. Hark a glad voice the lone - ly de - sert cheers; Pre -
 3. 'Tis he th'ob - struc - ted paths of sound shall clear And
 4. The seas shall waste, the skies in smoke de - cay, Rocks
 5. All glo - ry be to God en - throned on high, Who

Bass

5

S

he was born to save our souls a - bove; There - pare the way, a God, a God ap - pears; A bid new mu - sic charm th'un - fol - ding ear: The fall to dust and moun - tains melt a - way But sent his Son to save our souls there - by. There -

A

T

8

he was born to save our souls a - bove; There -
pare the way, a God, a God ap - pears; A bid new mu - sic charm th'un - fol - ding ear: The
fall to dust and moun - tains melt a - way But
 sent his Son to save our souls there - by. There -

B

Have you not heard our Saviour's love?

9

S
fore let us to heav'n our voi - ces raise, And God, a God, the vo - cal hills re - ply, And dumb shall sing, the lame his crutch fore - go, And fixed thy word, thy sa - ving pow'r re - mains: Thy fore re - jice; re - jice a - gain I say! For

A

T
fore let us to heav'n our voi - ces raise, And God, a God, the vo - cal hills re - ply, And dumb shall sing, the lame his crutch fore - go, And fixed thy word, thy sa - ving pow'r re - mains: Thy fore re - jice; re - jice a - gain I say! For

B

13

S
sing to God in so - lemn hymns of praise.
rocks pro - claim th'ap - proa - ching De - i - ty.
leap ex - ul - ting like the boun - ding roe.
realms shall last, thine own Mes - si - ah reigns.
now once more is come the hap - py day.

A

T
sing to God in so - lemn hymns of praise.
rocks pro - claim th'ap - proa - ching De - i - ty.
leap ex - ul - ting like the boun - ding roe.
realms shall last, thine own Mes - si - ah reigns.
now once more is come the hap - py day.

B

This version of Have you not heard our Saviour's love? is the only example of a tenor-led setting in Pickard-Cambridge's editions.

□ □ show instrumental notes.