

Ye saints and servants of the Lord

1

New Version of Tate and Brady (1696)

Psalm 113 verses 1-6 & doxology

Whitehaven (1788), by Hodgkinson
Edited by Francis Roads

Tenor [Air] $\text{♩} = 112$

1. Ye saints and ser - vants of the Lord, The tri - umphs
2. God through the world ex - tends his sway, The re - gions
3. Though 'tis be - neath his state to view In high - est
4. To Fa - ther, Son and Ho - ly Ghost, The God Whom

Bass

6

T

of his name re - cord. His sa - cred name for of e - ter - nal day But sha - dows of his heav'n what an - gels do, Yet he to earth vouch - heav'n's tri - um - phant host And suff' - ring saints on e - ver bless Where - e'er the arch - ing sun dis - plays glo - ry are With him, whose ma - je - sty ex - cels, safes his care; He takes the nee - dy from his cell earth a - dore, Be glo - ry as in a - ges past,

B

11

T

B

Edited from the Colby MSS, IOM.

Ye saints and servants of the Lord

17

S
 His ri - sing beams or set - ting rays, His ri - sing beams or
Who made the heav'n in which he dwells, Who made the heav'n in Ad - van - cing him in courts to dwell, Ad - van - cing him in
 As now it is, and so shall last, As now it is, and

A

T
 His ri - sing beams or set - ting rays, His ri - sing beams or
Who made the heav'n in which he dwells, Who made the heav'n in Ad - van - cing him in courts to dwell, Ad - van - cing him in
 As now it is, and so shall last, As now it is, and

B

23

S
 set - ting rays Due praise to his great name ad - dress.
which he dwells Let no cre - at - ed pow'r com - pare.
 courts to dwell Com - pa - nions to the great - est there.
 so shall last, When time it - self shall be no more.

A

T
 set - ting rays Due praise to his great name ad - dress.
which he dwells Let no cre - at - ed pow'r com - pare.
 courts to dwell Com - pa - nions to the great - est there.
 so shall last, When time it - self shall be no more.

B